Welcome to Lobos Basketball!

I am pleased to welcome you to another exciting season of Men's basketball at Monterey Peninsula College. I appreciate the efforts and hard work of our coaching staff and players as they begin their ~~2002-2003~~-2004 season.

Our basketball players have dual roles as athletes and as students. At MPC we are committed to the success of our players on the court as well as in the classroom. Head basketball coach, Blake Spiering, embodies this commitment. He is keenly interested in the academic endeavors of his athletes and their achievements both on and off the court.

This basketball season will be an exciting one and I look forward to watching our players in action. Please join me in supporting and cheering on our team. Go Lobos!

Kirk Avery
Superintendent/President
Monterey Peninsula College

Kirk Avery has served as Superintendent/President at Monterey Peninsula College since April 1997. Dr. Avery came to MPC in July of 1992 to assume the position of Vice President for Administrative Services and was subsequently named executive Vice President/Assistant Superintendent three years later. Prior to coming to Monterey, he served five years as President of Cypress College, located in Orange County, California. Dr. Avery came to Cypress College from Palo Verde College where he was the Superintendent/President for four and a half years.

He has a doctorate in Public Administration from the University of Southern California.

Dr. Avery lives with his wife and two sons in Pebble Beach where he avidly roots for the Los Angeles Lakers when he's not attending Lobo basketball games.

Welcome!

Monterey Peninsula College is proud of its Men's Basketball Program and the success they have achieved on and off the court.

Head Coach Blake Spiering starts his second~~first~~ season as head coach of the Lobos. The Lobos will play an aggressive in your face defense and will push the ball up the floor on offense. You can look forward to entertaining, fast paced basketball.

At Monterey Peninsula College we strive for our student athletes to have success on the court and in the classroom. Many of our participants have gone on to compete in basketball and complete their education at four-year institutions. This season will be no different.

Many people work together to make this opportunity possible. The MPC administration, faculty and staff, including our President, Dr. Kirk Avery, and the Board of Trustees are very supportive of the athletic program. We rely on the athletic staff members pictured in this program to work together to enhance each athlete's experience.

Monterey Peninsula College has a rich tradition of helping student athletes achieve their goals. Thank you for your support of this effort.

GO LOBOS!

HISTORY

Monterey Peninsula College commenced its operation in September of 1947 on the campus of Monterey High School, holding classes from 4 to 10 p.m. daily. During this first year 87 acres of land were purchased on Fremont Street. The following September classes opened in converted barracks buildings with 280 students and 20 faculty members. The campus was originally designed for approximately 1,000 students, but by 1957 the enrollment had approached this figure and it was evident that new buildings were necessary. The engineering building was constructed in 1958, the library in 1960, and the art and music center and swimming pool in 1962. The junior college separated from the Monterey Union High School District in 1961 and became a separate junior college district. With this reorganization, the Carmel Unified School District became part of the Peninsula-wide junior college district. The student population continued to grow as well as the need for additional classrooms. In 1965 the building program was renewed, and the “temporary” buildings of 1948 were replaced with new buildings for business, humanities, life science, physical education, physical science and social science. The lecture forum, the college theater, and the college center were part of this campus renewal. In 1973, the college began operating a satellite campus at Fort Ord in cooperation with the U.S. Army primarily for the benefit of Armed Forces personnel and their family members. In 1982-83, Monterey Peninsula College was selected as the site for the Maurine Church Coburn School of Nursing, established with a grant from the Maurine Church Coburn Charitable Trust under the leadership of Milton C. Coburn. The school is operated through proceeds from that grant administered by the Community Hospital Foundation, which owns and operates Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula and the Community Hospital Recovery Center. During August, 1988, the engineering building was remodeled with funds from the Community Hospital Foundation to house the School of Nursing. Monterey Peninsula College is part of California’s public community college system of 108 campuses in 72 districts across the state. It is a comprehensive community college that responds to the educational, cultural, and recreational needs of community members, insofar as its resources permit. The college serves the communities of Big Sur, Carmel, Carmel Valley, Del Rey Oaks, Marina, Monterey, Pacific Grove, Pebble Beach, Presidio of Monterey Annex, Sand City, and Seaside. Monterey Peninsula College classes are held on the main campus during Fall and Spring semesters, Early Spring, and Summer sessions.

MISSION

Monterey Peninsula College provides a quality learning experience for students by offering a variety of programs and services which are dedicated to excellence and which meet community needs. Monterey Peninsula College offers a stimulating, high quality, low-cost environment for students desiring to transfer, prepare for emerging job opportunities, and improve their lives. Monterey Peninsula College provides a positive atmosphere for learning and supports opportunities for growth for all members of the community, regardless of their circumstances. Monterey Peninsula College is a community of learners, engaging minds in the active pursuit and sharing of knowledge by offering courses and programs:

- to encourage achievement of degrees and transfer
- to enable the acquisition of necessary basic skills
- to meet workplace needs

- to share our resources, people and facilities, with the community.

Monterey Peninsula College endeavors to assist all who participate in its varied objectives to realize their rights, freedoms, and responsibilities in the community and the larger society of which they are a part.

PHILOSOPHY

Monterey Peninsula College is committed to the ideal of academic freedom derived through careful and critical appraisal, and in turn, provides a place where students may freely formulate their ideas and values. All members of the college community support the ideals of excellence, human worth, and realization of human potential. Monterey Peninsula College provides opportunities for development of skills and knowledge that will enable students of all ages and backgrounds to become, and remain, productive in their chosen vocations, both for the sake of the individual and society. Through research, self-appraisal, and institutional planning, Monterey Peninsula College responds to unmet needs of the community and to changing expectations within the worlds of education and work. As the College looks outward to the community and finds meaning and opportunity in its diversity, so it extends its reach to the global community in which its members may discover a new sense of place. Monterey Peninsula College opens its doors to all members of the community -- young and older adults, those who deal with challenges to the quality of their lives or work, the military and their dependents, the laborer, the merchant, and the artist, in order to engage them as willing partners in helping to meet their goal of self-fulfillment. At the same time, the college participates in partnerships with private enterprise, public agencies, and educational institutions in order to further the academic and work-related aspirations of the community. To carry out its Mission and support its Philosophy, Monterey Peninsula College will:

1. Provide excellence in education for students planning to transfer to a four-year college or university;
2. Provide a high standard of occupational training, enabling students to qualify for jobs in a variety of career fields, and enabling those already employed to develop their skills or train for another career;
