TO BENEFIT MPC FOUNDATION LOBOS BOOSTER CLUB

MONTEREY, CA – February 18, 2015 - The Monterey Peninsula College Foundation Lobos Booster Club is partnering with local software gurus, Extreme Impact, Inc. to host an exciting fundraising event that offers something for everyone while benefitting MPC student-athletes! Golfers and wine enthusiasts alike are invited to participate in the March 20th event at the Nicklaus Club in Monterey.

What began as a desire to honor the memory of two loved ones, Phil Romeka and Aaron Tyler, has grown into a one-of-a-kind event. “This is not your average, run-of-the-mill golf tournament,” explains Birt Johnson, Booster Club Committee Chair. “In addition to a million-dollar putting contest, golfers will have chance to enjoy the company of MPC student-athletes who will be serving as forecaddies and offering up fun surprises at nearly every hole.” Lunch will be prepared by MPC hospitality students, while MPC massage students will provide golfers with much needed muscle relief.

For those who don’t play golf, there will be a Wine Trolley Tour departing from the Nicklaus Club that will visit five premiere wineries in Carmel Valley. Trolley riders and golfers will join together for dinner at the Nicklaus Club while hearing from MPC alumni and current Chicago Bears Quarterback, David Fales.

Golf foursomes are $700, single players $200, which includes lunch, wine, beer, and dinner. Tickets for the Wine Trolley (including lunch and dinner) are $149. Space is limited - tickets for both golf and the wine trolley are available until sold out at www.eimonterey.com
