

MONTEREY PENINSULA
COLLEGE

President's Roundtable

The President's Roundtable will meet monthly throughout each primary semester. The Roundtable will consist of the following college leadership positions:

- Superintendent/President
- Faculty Senate President
- Classified Representative (in lieu of senate)
- Faculty Union President
- Classified Union President
- Associated Students President
- Associated Students Vice President (or designee)

This informal meeting is designed to provide for the following outcomes:

- Increased consistent communication amongst constituency groups
- Honest appraisals of the campus climate
- Advice on college initiatives
- Relationship building and safe discussion culture
- Constructive feedback on overall college operations

As such, the agenda is created by the Superintendent/President but all members are asked to contribute topics as well. The spirit of the Roundtable, or its values, consist of:

- Inclusion of topics, ideas and concerns
- Collaboration
- Team support for cross-constituent communications
- Consistent review and sharing of strategies, successes, and complications
- Continuous campus and team improvement

The Roundtable does not keep formal minutes but may note action items that come out of the meeting such as:

- Quarterly Initiative communication
- Community Friday Forum participation and feedback
